

In what ways can I give?

- Outright Gifts of cash, stocks, bonds or real property may be made during your lifetime. These can honor a special person or occasion.
- Bequests by Will can specify giving either a percentage of your estate or a set amount to the church.
- Retirement Accounts and Life Insurance policies can include the church as a beneficiary.
- Trusts of various types are available. Some provide a lifetime income to the donor with the principal going to the church upon the donor's death. Others provide a stream of income to the church during the donor's lifetime with the principal going to the donor's estate upon his/her death. Other types of trusts can be established.
