

What are the possible tax benefits?

Contributions to the Endowment Fund may provide substantial tax advantages to the donor and/or the donor's estate. However, tax implications differ significantly according to the type of donations and the financial circumstances of the donor. Please consult with an accountant or attorney for detailed information.

